Governor's Message

Dear Zontians,

As the time for the holiday season approaches, I again marvel at the fleeting of time. It seems I just saw many of you at the District Conference. Another thought struck me, what is the concept of time for women in abusive and hopeless situations? Time must move very slowly for them; it must seem like their lives are in slow motion or even reverse. As our lives whiz by in the fast lane, we need to remember the women standing on the sidelines and think of the ways we can help bring them up to speed. We need to make today a time that is livable and tomorrow a time that is more than just tolerable, but actually hopeful. Make life better for a woman today.

The District Conference is now history. It was a wonderful Conference. I owe a world of thanks to the Zonta Club of Billings, especially Jennifer Pinnow, the conference chairman, the District 12 Board, and our special guest and International Representative, Betty Jane Bourdon, Zonta International Vice President. There were great workshops, fellowship, speakers, and a lot of fun. If you were unable to attend, be sure to visit with your delegate about the handouts and the wonderful time everyone had. At past conferences I observed that getting workshop results to attendees is always a problem so this year a lot of work went into getting the results out immediately. That way every Club can get to work on these awesome ideas right away.

Get that day timer out! Now it is time to talk about the upcoming Area Meetings and the International Convention. Further in the Outreach you will find more on the Area Meeting dates. As you have probably guessed our Zonta connection to one another is very important and that is one of the main reasons to go to Area Meetings, but, of course, not the only one. It is a time to learn and come away with wonderful ideas about making life better for women and making your Club better.

Speaking of better, what could be better than meeting 3,000 Zontians from 67 countries? That is the opportunity that will be knocking at your door very soon. The opening ceremony for the Zonta International Convention in New York City is on the Fourth of July. I know that many of your clubs have Big Apple funds and that many of you are getting excited to go to New York, the Big Apple. I know I am. So many of the Zonta conventions are far away in foreign lands, which is very expensive and very time consuming. We are very lucky to have this convention in New York, which is so much more doable for many of us. Please make plans to attend the Convention in New York and make the delegation from District 12 a very large one. You will gain many friends, a lot of Zonta knowledge, and have a very wonderful time. Watch for the opportunity to register online for both the Convention and the hotel.

I hope to see all of you at your Area Meeting in the spring and the Convention in the summer.

Have a wonderful and peaceful holiday season.

As always, yours in Zonta,
Mary

Zonta International District 12 Mission Statement

Zonta District 12's purpose is to build, develop, and maintain strong clubs through support, leadership, and communication in order to further the mission of Zonta International.

DISTRICT 12 ARCHIVES

At the District board meeting in the winter of 2002 your board gave me permission to investigate the placement of the district archives in a safe, clean place where they would be accessible to all of us. At that time I asked my good friend Elizabeth Clinton, past Area 3 Director and member of the Zonta Club of Denver, to investigate the possibilities in the Denver area. The best and most receptive place was determined to be the Western History Department of the Denver Public Library. They even offered to pick things up!

At the recent District Conference in Billings, Montana, it was voted by the Conference delegates to agree to the archiving of District 12 history. The archives will include scrapbooks, plaques, and awards. Some time after the first of the year your archives can be found at the Denver Public Library. I am very pleased about this partnership.

Do you or your Club have some thing that should go into the district archives? Please remember how important our history is to our future Zontians. If you have some thing that you believe is pertinent, please feel free to contact either your area director or me.

Governor Mary

TITLE IX

As some of you know, I had the privilege of making a presentation at the North American Summit in St. Louis last summer about the assault on Title IX by the current administration. Title IX is the law that allows for equal opportunity in education for males and females in all publicly funded schools. This law has been in place for 31 years. We mostly think of Title IX for girls in terms of sports, but it actually covers any and all activities. Title IX has opened many doors for girls and women.

Although it is not followed to the letter of the law things are much better than they were 31 years ago when the law was passed. When the current administration tried to dismantle Title IX, the hot poker was stuck in the hornets' nest. Such uproar was caused that everyone involved has backed off calling what was going on a "study."

The way I see it now is that our collective job is to watch our local schools. By virtue of what has been going on Title IX is vulnerable and it is up to us to keep watch. If a school is publicly funded, then they must obey the law. This means that proportionally girls and boys must receive equal opportunity to participate in all activities. We must be the guardians of our girls and young women.

Governor Mary

KLAUSMAN WOMEN IN BUSINESS DISTRICT WINNER ANNOUNCED

Melissa Zollars, a junior at the University of Northern Colorado, has been awarded the $400 District 12 Jane M. Klausman Scholarship. Melissa is working toward a degree in Finance hoping to obtain a job in the banking industry. She just graduated from high school last year but has already taken enough college courses to be a junior.

She spends her time working on local and state political campaigns, tutoring, promoting campus speakers, participating in a Leadership Conference and reading to pre-school children. She has been honored as the Outstanding Business Student and is on the Dean's list.

Her application was submitted by the Zonta Club of Prowers County. [Four members of the Prowers County Club are shown below at the District Conference.]

Jane Page

NEW WEBSITE FEATURES LAUNCHED

On Thursday, November 13, 2003, Zonta International / Zonta International Foundation made changes to the website, although the website address remains the same at www.zonta.org. To access Member Resources (including the Zonta Store), you will need to be a Zonta Club member in good standing, and on your first visit you will need to "Register." To do this, you will need your Zonta International Member ID number. Your Member ID number can be found on your New Member Certificate and on the mailing label of each issue of The Zontian magazine you receive or contact your Club Treasurer for the number from your Club Roster. Further details are provided on the First Time Registration page of the website.

To verify your active membership, a Member Profile has been created for you from information submitted with your membership dues renewal. Initially, it will not be possible for you to correct your Member Profile online; however, it is anticipated that this service will be available to all members within 90 days. In the meantime, please continue to notify Headquarters of any changes to your contact information just as you have always done.

Service Committee Report

by Kristy Schmitz

District 12 presents an annual service award at the District Conference. The award consists of the grouping of international flags from countries around the world that have Zonta Clubs. This award is given to the Club that has met the following criteria:

- Annual report turned in by the due date
- High percentage of members are involved in the service project
- Service goals are in line with International service goals
- Community service projects that work to continue improving the status of women within the community
- Projects promote Zonta in the community
- One third of Club service budget is allocated for International service

As always, Zontians of District 12 have given wholeheartedly to your service projects and have been generous to your communities in your commitment to improving the status of women. Zontians have given with time—over 12,520 hours reported—you have given with financial support—over $201,897 earned in District 12—with $54,380 reported given to International, and you have given with your hearts. I am pleased to announce that the Zonta Club of Converse County in Douglas, Wyoming was presented this award at the District Conference in Billings. (See the photo above.) Below is a brief description of their projects.

“As with many good ideas, the Zonta Club of Converse County’s Fall Fashion Show, Luncheon & Fundraiser all started from attending District Conference. Irma Cross was president in 2000-2001, and she said other clubs in the District were holding fashion shows as fundraisers and wondered if our Club would be interested. Betty Pexton, who at the time, was also a volunteer for Helping Hands (a subsidiary of 5 churches now called DEMI) had the idea to model donated "slightly used" clothing since we did not have a department store in Douglas to loan us the clothes as you would in a typical fashion show. Used clothing would be gathered from Zontians and friends of Zonta (patrons) and be sold at the show. Women and children could get something new to them for work or play for not more than $4 and a nominal fee for a terrific lunch! Any items not sold at the show would be given to Helping Hands to then sell in their store. Francie Claus was made the chairperson the first two years and thought the fundraiser chair position to be the perfect method for Zontians to experience the leadership role before becoming club president. Typically chairpersons for the show are chosen from our Zontians of the Year recipients who have already gone above and beyond in their duties. Mary Jamieson was our Zontain of the Year for 2002-2003 and chair for this year’s show which proved to be bigger and more profitable than ever.

Can you imagine collecting over 1000 articles of clothing or doing the actual cooking for 125? Pat Perrotti met the challenge with the clothing and Kay Moore and her committee were masters in the kitchen. Depending on the recommendation of the fundraising committee, the show might have raffles, bake sales, silent auctions, or tag sales incorporated to help meet varying goals set. Monies have been raised for local scholarships and special projects, Helping Hands, and the Zonta International Service Fund through the fashion show. Lots of energy, creativity, and vision by the Club will keep this recycling fundraiser forever popular within the community.

While the fashion show is one of our newer projects, the Zonta Club of Converse County under the direction of Pat Perrotti has served the community for over 12 years with the Zonta sponsored community blood drive. This drive is held three times a year and collects an estimated 100 pints with each drive. The Zonta Club of Converse County is proud of Pat Perrotti and her dedication to the Club and to this cause. Other service projects have included the Head Start Easter Egg Hunt, womens baskets for the Jubilee House, collecting for the Salvation Army, planting yellow roses at various sites in the community, and painting for Habitat for Humanity.

It is with great pride and appreciation that the Converse County Club accepts the Zonta International Flag Service Award. Thank you District 12!”

—Francie Claus

AREA DIRECTOR REPORTS

Area 1—busy, busy, busy!!!

Area 1 Clubs are busy with projects, club activities, and fundraisers. Perhaps one of the busiest Clubs this fall has been the Billings Club as they prepared and hosted the District 12 Conference. This Club did a wonderful job of organizing and welcoming all Zontians to Billings. It was a great conference because of their hard work. In addition, several Area 1 Clubs helped with different events during the Conference, and we thank them for doing such a great job.

Several of our Area 1 Clubs have major events during the Fall season. Black Hills has their Zonta Expo in October. Sturgis has their annual pumpkin sale. Glendive has a Fall Bazaar the second week of November. The Pierre-Fort Pierre Club has their annual Craft Show on November 15 and 16. Spearfish has their annual Christmas Tree Sale during the week following Thanksgiving. The Southern Hills Club will have their Annual Christmas Party and White Elephant Sale in December which is combined with a membership drive.

The Black Hills Club is also working with women in Gillette, Wyoming, to form a new club. On November 11, several members, along with Bev Morrow, met with some of the women to build on what had already been accomplished. There is strong enthusiasm in the community. If anyone knows of someone the Black Hills Club should be contacting in Gillette, please let Jane Page know.

—Nancy Trautman, Area 1 Director

Area 2 Report—November, 2003

Mark your calendars for the Area 2 meeting to be held on April 17, 2004, in Cheyenne! Preliminary plans include an Area 2 service project and a “President’s Panel” to share ideas about committee projects, membership, leadership, and more!

Congratulations to Zontians from Area 2 that were elected to District 12 offices for 2004-2006!

Governor—Evelyn Haskell, Laramie

Lt Governor—Beverly Morrow, Cheyenne

Area 2 Director—Linda Bogart, Cheyenne

Area 2 Vice Director—Francie Claus, Converse Co.

The workshops at District 12 Conference were especially helpful and offered an excellent opportunity to brainstorm and share ideas. With laptops on site, each workshop generated a written list of ideas. Check with your delegates that attended conference for copies of workshop notes on these topics:

Leadership training

Nominating committee

UN Day/Zonta Rose Day

YWPA/Klausman scholarships

Fundraising

Service projects

Membership

An additional handout was provided following the Z Club panel discussion as well.

Club Updates:

In October, the Cheyenne Club sponsored the Latina Conference at the Governors Mansion. The fabulous Antique Show has been scheduled for September 10-11, 2004.

Converse County was honored as the recipient of the District 12 Service Award at district conference! Congratulations to all of the members of Converse County for a job well done!

The Fort Collins Club will initiate Club will tour the Larimer County Food Bank in November and will collect turkeys for delivery to the Food Bank on November 20.

The Laramie Club will host their annual fundraiser, Holiday Magic Style Show at the Laramie Country Club in November. Several new members will be initiated before the end of the year.

Happenings from Area 3—

Several of the Area 3 Clubs have their major fundraisers during the Holidays, and they are very successful. The Boulder County Club had its annual Sugar Plum Craft Fair on November 1 at the Spice of Life Center in Boulder. This is a great fundraiser for them and lots of fun for all who attend. The Boulder County Club also sells poinsettias and wreaths during the Holidays and the Denver II Club sells poinsettias and candy.

The Denver Club will have their first International Holiday Bazaar next November 5-6, 2004, and would love to hear from anyone with ideas on crafts for the booths. During the Holidays, the Denver Club volunteers to ring bells for the Salvation Army at Park Meadows Mall, adopts a family to help them have a happy Holiday, and volunteers at the Denver Santa Claus Shop.

The Jefferson County Club will again host a Colorado Authors’ Luncheon in late March. This successful fundraiser features at least three Colorado authors who speak at the luncheon, sign their books, and answer questions. The luncheon is held at Pinehurst Country Club in southwest Denver. Any suggestions for Colorado authors would be greatly appreciated!

The Lakewood-Golden Club will be hosting the Amelia Earhart Dinner on January 28, 2004, at the Lakewood Country Club. This annual event is very popular since there is lots of socializing, a great speaker, and a wonderful silent auction. Each Club has two large tables of exciting auction items and money raised goes to the local communities. The new Douglas County Club will have available some new gift items that they have made—beautifully wrapped soaps that look and smell heavenly in your bath.

Plans are now being made for the Area 3 Meeting scheduled for April 3, 2004, and hosted by the Boulder Foothills Club. This Saturday event will feature a speaker, reports from all the Area 3 Clubs, and everyone working together on a hands-on project for the local community. Great for those Service Hours!

The Area 3 Clubs continue to collect used cell phones which are re-programmed for the “Call to Protect” program and then given to women in abusive situations. Each club president seems to have a trunk full of phones as we can’t seem to keep up with all the donations! Very successful! Area 3 Clubs are also collecting Colorado grown seeds to be sent to Afghanistan where their soil is very similar to Colorado’s.

I am pleased to report that membership in Area 3 continues to grow! Several clubs have already held functions for prospective members, and they are proving to be extremely successful. Douglas County has added two new members and Boulder County has three new members. We hope to continue this growth throughout the year!

Happy Holidays from Area 3!

—Kate Linscott, Area 3 Director

Greetings from Area 4!

Zonta Club of the Canon City Area

Members of the Canon City Club are busy gathering toiletries before their December 3 meeting to create baskets and bags for delivery to the Rocky Mountain Behavioral Center. These baskets of shampoos, perfumes, and other “grooming” items will be given to women who are leaving the recovery program to help build their self-esteem. This service project first started two years ago after the Center’s director presented a program at one of the Club meetings; it has since been adopted as an ongoing project. Approximately 30 baskets were given at their last donation time, and the Club is looking forward to putting together many more to deliver before Christmas.

Zonta Club of the Pikes Peak Area

On November 3, a total of 21 people filled Pat Kosley’s house to bag 1,500 pounds of nuts into one-pound plastic bags (all but 100 pounds of the nuts had been pre-sold). Twelve club members, three husbands (fondly called Zontos), three non-members, and one brave young boy took about 1-1/2 hours to get the job done. It seemed the more people talked, the faster they bagged, so in no time mountains of nuts were displayed all over the house. Those members who were present took their nuts with them at the end of the work session and distributed them over the next few days. This project has been a major fundraiser for quite a few years now, but this is the first year the profits should reach approximately $2,000.

Zonta Club of Prowers County

Members of the Prowers County Club are gearing up to support the annual holiday home tour, which will be held the first part of December. Sponsored in collaboration with the Daily News newspaper, this tour benefits the domestic violence program in Lamar. Five or six decorated homes are open to the public, tickets are sold to people in the community, and Zontians are stationed at each home to supervise the tour with the homeowner, collect tickets, or to sell tickets to those people just “dropping in.” Club members are hoping enough money can be raised at some point to create a safe home for women in domestic violence situations and their children.

Zonta Club of Pueblo

At the time of this writing, Pueblo Zontians are planning to hold two ZING (Zonta Informational Network Gathering) meetings on November 12-13 to introduce women in the community to Zonta International. The meetings are being held at a lovely Italian restaurant where seven women will enjoy dinner and a detailed presentation. Governor Mary Benoit, Area Director Kate Brewster, Vice Area Director Jo Ann Russ and Vice President and Membership Chairman Tamara Muhic are on the agenda to talk about the history of the organization, structure, committees, International service projects and programs, local service projects, and membership information. This is an important step to help rebuild their club after several years of declining membership. I’d like to take this opportunity to thank Tamara for her hard work in developing this ZING program and the members for their support. You are to be congratulated on your efforts to enhance and revitalize your club.

—Kate Brewster, Area 4 Director

Area Meeting dates set for the Spring of 2004 are:

Area 4	March 27	Canon City
Area 3	April 3	Foothills Boulder
Area 2	April 17	Cheyenne
Area 1	April 24	Southern Black Hills

CELEBRATION OF UNITED NATIONS DAY

October 24, 2003

Debbie Hindin-King (dhindin-king@hollandhart.com)
District 12 UN/International Relations Chair

In 1945 representatives from 50 countries at the United Nations Conference prepared the United Charter for the International organization that was signed on June 26, 1945. The General Assembly of the United Nations ultimately passed a resolution to designate October 24th as United Nations Day and that it be devoted to making known to people the achievements of the United Nations.

Zonta International is among 3,000 not for profit non-governmental organizations who have been given this special designation by the Department of Public Information because they have agreed to have strong informational programs on issues of concern to the United Nations, e.g., health, welfare of women, education, trade, and industrialization. Zonta International has also agreed to disseminate information to its membership and support the mission of the United Nations, through its international service projects in India (promoting the status of women), Afghanistan (health and education for women) and Bosnia-Herzegovina (welfare of women).

Since 1985, Zonta International has had consultative status with ECOSOC (Economic and Social Council)—one of the 6 bodies that carries out the work of the United Nations related to trade, women's rights, children, health and education. Members of Zonta International's United Nations Committee, attend conferences and sessions at United Nations' sites in Geneva, Vienna, Paris and, of course, at the United Nations' headquarters in New York City.

So how did you club celebrate United Nations' Day? Perhaps you had a "UN" moment you shared with your members, invited a guest speaker from a foreign country, sampled some international food, reviewed press releases related to education and health issues affecting women and children in foreign countries, viewed Zonta International President Margit Webjörn's videotape regarding an update of Zonta International's service projects in India, Afghanistan and Bosnia-Herzegovina?

The Zonta Club of Denver II was fortunate to have Meena Desai, originally from an area near New Delhi, India, and currently residing in Denver. Meena spoke about the immigrant Indian woman in the United States and the creation of a local support group in the Denver area to help them adjust to cultural differences. She also shared with us the history of SEWA (Self-Employed Women's Association) registered as a trade union in April 1972. SEWA was born in the labor movement with the idea that self-employed women have a right to their wages, decent working conditions and protective labor laws. The SEWA Bank was created in 1974 to support the labor movement and provide credit to self employed women to sustain their businesses.

As the global economy continues to improve and countries form new alliances all over the world, we only need to be reminded gently that the United Nations has been instrumental in making this world a better place for all mankind.

The two Boulder County Clubs (Zonta Club of Boulder County and Zonta Foothills Club of Boulder County) provided the cake shown at the right at the Boulder UN Day Celebration entitled Water for the World: A Forum. There were over 70 people in attendance. The topics included: Water Problems between the US and Mexico; Water, Poverty, and Political Instability in South Asia; and Global Water Quality Issues. Virginia Schultz, International Committee of the Zonta Foothills Club of Boulder County, reports that it was a very informative and worthwhile event.

WHAT TO DO WITH THOSE CELL PHONES YOUR CLUB COLLECTS

To find out where to take donated cell phones, go to www.wirelessfoundation.org. Here you will find information by state.

Remember this is a District 12 project that takes so little effort and money but goes a long way to improve the status of women who need it the most.

Report of the Zonta International Foundation

In 1984 the Zonta International Foundation was established to administer the service programs and projects of Zonta International (ZI). The Foundation is a 501c3 organization, established exclusively for charitable purposes. It receives, raises, and invests the funds donated by Zonta clubs, individual members, and others.

The Foundation Board has seven members, elected for alternating four-year non-renewing terms. It elects its officers for two-year terms.

District 12 is one of the smallest in membership of the 30 districts of Zonta International. For the biennium 2002-2004, through September 30, 2003, total contributions received by the Foundation were $1,465,000. District 12 has contributed $59,000+, placing our district 10th in giving to date. Included in the $59,000 is $5,300 given by 34 individual Zonta members of District 12. Of the clubs represented by these contributions, the Zonta Club of Cheyenne had 8 individual members giving, which is the greatest number of the 22 clubs in the District.

At the District Conference in Billings, the Zonta International Representative, B.J. Bourdon commented on how great it was to visit such a dedicated district. She particularly liked our methods of reporting the dollars given with the percent given to Zonta International and the number of service hours we have donated. It is my pleasure to represent this great District, and I appreciate all of your hard work in the giving of your time and dollars to your communities and to the Zonta World.

As a Zonta member concerned with improving the status of women by helping them to find the power, freedom, and the right to lead better lives, consider a personal contribution to the Zonta International Foundation along with encouraging your club's contributions.
