Advancing the Status of Women Worldwide

*Zonta International is a worldwide service organization of executives in business and the professions working together to advance the status of women. There are Zonta members in more than 1,250 clubs in over 67 countries.

*Founded in 1919 in Buffalo, New York, USA, Zonta takes its name from the Sioux Indian word meaning "honest and trustworthy." Zontians volunteer their time, talents and energy to local and international service projects designed to advance the status of women.

*Zonta supports women's education and leadership through its Amelia Earhart Fellowship Awards for graduate study in aerospace-related sciences and engineering; the Michael J. Freeman Scholarships for women pursuing technical degrees in Ireland; and the Young Women in Public Affairs Awards created to encourage young women to seek leadership positions in public policy, government and volunteer organizations.

*Zonta is committed to women's development. Since 1986, Zonta has worked with the United Nations Development Fund for Women (UNIFEM) promoting women's economic development in 19 developing nations. This successful partnership continues.

*Zonta has consultative status with international agencies. These include: Category I Status with the United Nations Economic and Social Council (ECOSOC), and Consultative Status with the United Nations Education, Scientific and cultural Organization (UNESCO); the United Nations International Children's Emergency Fund (UNICEF); the United Nations Development Fund for Women (UNIFEM); the International Labor Organization (ILO); and the Council of Europe. Zonta maintains representatives at United Nations sites in Geneva, Switzerland; New York City, USA; Paris, France; and Vienna, Austria.

*Individual Zonta clubs extend membership invitations to local leaders in business and the professions.
