

A.E.G.E. SPRING NEWSLETTER 2025

Women as Leaders and Decision-Makers

What are your skills?

How do you lead?
Loudly, quietly or in-between

What is your passion?

How can you put your skills, passions and leadership style into action

Head, Heart, Hands is a leadership model for women to understand their leadership style and become leaders and decision-makers

Book Recommendation:

Moonrise: The Power of Women Leading from the Heart
By Nina Simons

A.E.G.E. SPRING NEWSLETTER 2025

Page 2

A Climate Justice Action is... Empowering more Women and Girls to be Leaders and Decision Makers

Lead by example

Be positive and forward-thinking

Use your power to change the world - Being Bold

Seek power with others instead of power over others.

TALK about the issues

LISTEN to Experts who are making a difference

ASK questions

THINK about what you learned

TALK, ASK, and LISTEN as a group

CHOOSE a focus - clean air, clean water, food waste, plastic waste

DO SOMETHING - All climate issues affect women and girls by exacerbating gender-based violence, human trafficking, child marriage, health, and livelihood in the U.S. and internationally.

Learn how to talk about climate change

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UHPZwOzbHNE>

‘I lead from the heart not the head’
-Princess Diana

